

Teams will have access to Wi-Fi, desks and chairs. Meals will also be provided while you're in the Farfetch office. Participants must bring their own equipment.

TERMS & CONDITIONS

The application to the F-Tech Open (the event) implies full acceptance of the following Terms & Conditions

A. Application and eligibility

1. Individuals older than 18 years may apply to the event, as individual participants or as a team.
2. All applications submitted to the event will be subject to an assessment. The selected participants and teams will receive an email confirmation.
3. Applications must be submitted by January 31 (2018)
4. Individuals not registered in a team will be invited to form a team before the event.
5. Teams can have a technology developed, but such project cannot have been invested or participated in an acceleration program.
6. Farfetch employees or their relatives are not allowed to participate in the event.

B. Cancellation Policy

1. The cancellation of registration can be done through e-mail sent to the organising team for the contact presented on the website of the event.

C. Agenda

1. The agenda for workshops and mentoring sessions will not be public on the website. The organisation will send an email with the programme and has the right to change this programme without notice.
2. The agenda of the showcase event will be public on the website.

D. Participation requirements

1. Solution requirements: The developed solutions shall not:

- i. Feature any references of sexual nature, explicit or suggestive, violent or derogatory to any ethnic, racial, religious, and professional or age group or pornographic content.
- ii. Advertise illegal drugs or firearms (or the use of any of the foregoing), or any activity that may convey unsafe, dangerous or political messages.
- iii. Be obscene or offensive or encourage any form of hate or group hate or derogatory comments about the organisation or its products or services, or other people, products or companies.
- iv. Present registered trademarks or logos owned by third parties or advertise or promote any brand or product of any kind.
- v. Contain materials protected by copyright or property of third parties (including photographs, sculptures, paintings and other works of art or images published on websites, television, movies, or any other media). Participants shall ensure that the ideas/prototypes/apps proposed are innovative and original.
- vi. Present any names, images, photographs or other pieces of evidence that identify any person, living or dead, without explicit authorisation from them or their representatives.

2. Behaviour: Participants are expected to behave cordially and with respect. Excessive use of obscene language, abusive behaviour, or threatening behaviour directed to any other participant will not be tolerated.

3. Failure to comply with the conditions provided for in this clause may result in, by decision of the jury, at its sole discretion, the exclusion of the Participant and/or team from the event without the possibility for participants make any claim or appeal against the decision.

E. Evaluation and Prizes

1. Eligible projects will be evaluated by a jury composed of judges selected by the organiser, with experience in the subject matter of the Event.
2. One of the judges will be appointed as Chairman of the Jury, who will be responsible for coordinating and ensuring the good progress of the work and the final decision of the jury.
3. The decisions will be taken by simple majority and the chairman will have the right to cast a vote if needed.
4. The decisions will be taken at the Jury's sole discretion, without the possibility for any team or team member to make any claim or appeal against the decisions, either interlocutory or final, of the Jury.
5. Teams will be up to present the project on stage and be eligible to receive the prizes, if:
 - a. The presented solution is original and does not infringe intellectual property;
 - b. They are part of the 5 finalists teams selected by an intermediate Farfetch jury composed of the programme mentors to present on stage.
6. The projects will be evaluated considering the following criteria:
 - a. Connection between the solution and the challenge presented;
 - b. Level of innovation;
 - c. Evolution during the programme;
 - d. Prototype functionality;
 - e. Ability of the team in taking the project further
7. The Organiser will offer Prizes. Financial prizes are subject to taxes. The payment of any taxes, fees, charges or contributions related to the prizes is the sole responsibility of each individual team member of the winning teams.
8. Substitutions & Changes: The Organiser has the right, at its sole discretion, to make a Prize substitution. The Organiser reserves the right to not deliver prizes (in whole or in part) should the quality of the final products not meet the challenge of the event and/or should the Jury decide not to do so, at its sole discretion, without the possibility for any team or team member make any claims about the decision.
9. Contest prizes are awarded per team and they are non-transferable to a third party. It is up to the team to ultimately decide how to divide the prize between the team members.

F. Intellectual Property

1. The participant acknowledges and agrees that any ideas, projects and collaborations within the challenge are and remain the intellectual property of the person or team that presents the idea. The participant will not use an original idea or its information to generate own income, without the written consent of the author. The participant is not allowed to disclose any idea or related idea without the written consent of the owner.
2. Intellectual property and the work developed before, during and after the challenge, belong to the participant and the team.
3. Notwithstanding the above, the participant and/or the respective team authorises and ensures that the participant is entitled to provide such authorisation for the Organiser to mention the solutions designed by the participant and/or the respective team in the communication and advertising materials of the event and future editions of the same or similar events produced by the Organiser, on a perpetual basis.

G. Mentoring

1. The teams will receive advice from mentors during the event. The participant agrees that these services are advisory in nature and, as such, the final decision as to whether to follow such advice rests with the team.

H. Equipment and Facilities

1. Teams will have access to Wi-Fi to support the development of projects. Participants should bring own computers and other equipment they deem relevant.
2. Meals are included on the agenda for the time participants are in the Farfetch Office.

I. Confidentiality

The participants are required to sign a non-disclosure agreement before entering into the Farfetch Office. Failure or refusal to sign such non-disclosure agreement will result in the automatic exclusion of the participant and/or team from the event.

J. Personal Information and Rights

1. The participant acknowledges and accepts that some personal data about him/her will need to be processed by Farfetch for the purposes of registration of the participant in the event, and to circulate details, newsletters and announcements regarding the event.
2. Personal information of the participants provided to Farfetch will not be shared with third parties.
3. The participant agrees to collaborate with Farfetch by answering surveys about the event itself and the evolution of the project.
4. Each participant agrees to assign the rights of his/her image in photography or video for any communication related to the event.

K. Personal Property

1. Farfetch accepts no responsibility for loss or damage to personal property.

L. Questions or Suggestions:

1. In order to see any question clarified, both applicants and participants shall first refer to the information available on the website of the F-Tech Open (www.ftechopen.com).
2. For any further information or suggestion, the following email address should be used: f-techopen@farfetch.com
3. Any omission shall be settled by the Jury, pursuant to Clause E of this Regulation.